WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23. 1738.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Vienna, Aug. 5. O. S.

LETTERS from the Imperial Army say, that on the 29th ult. it arrived at Dessenova, in its March towards the Danube; that the Sickness among the Troops decreases very much, and that they have Plenty of Provisions and Forage. The Enemy continue quiet in their seve-mps, the most considerable of which is still at va, between Widdin and Orsova, under the Vizier, and the rest of the Turkish Forces spersed in the Bannat of Temiswaer, and in chia, towards the Frontiers of Transilvania. re assured that it has been resolved to raise Recruits in the Emperor's Hereditary Domi- in case a Peace be not concluded this Winter; s confirm'd that the Elector of Bavaria will th send into the Emperor's Service 3 Regi- of Foot of 2300 Men each, besides 15 Squa-

Count de Seckendorf's Lady is not set out for as was reported, but still continues here, and assured that it has been hinted to her, that if sed, she might go to her Country Seat, and pair of seeing her Husband again in a little the Emperor having return'd a very gracious to that General's last Petition. Tho' the being detain'd at Gratz hinders him from ng as Velt Marshal, yet the Emperor has good as to order him a Payment of 6000 which is the Sum that the Appointments of ft amount to when he is actually employ'd.

es, July 25. O. S. The Governor of the Castle Elmo having turn'd off his Valet de Chambre ays ago, the latter in Revenge fir'd a Pistol at Wednesday, as he pass'd in his Coach along eet of Toledo, but happened by good Luck his Aim, after which the Fellow retir'd into ch for Sanctuary; but a Detachment of Sol- as sent to take him out.

Days ago, after their Majesties had heard the Chapel of St. Januarius, in the Metro- Church of this City, the Statutes of the New whereof the said Saint is Patron, were read, n the King, who in quality of Grand Master said Order, was array'd in the Habit of the gnity by the Cardinal Spinelli our Archbishop, veral Genuflexions before the Altar, on which ad of St. Januarius was placed. The Badges Order established in Honour of that Saint, Gold Chain, on which his Martyrdom is re- ed, and to which two Viols of Gold are Ap- t, referring to his Blood. The Guns of the les were fired upon Occasion of this Ceremony. press is sent to Dresden to inform the King and of Poland, that the Prince Royal, who had ad Legs that he could not stir without the a Cane, has received so much Benefit by the the Baths at Ischia, that he can now walk ell.

ver, Aug. 9. O. S. We hear from Brunswick, e King of Prussia passing thro' that City in the ne, bought two Snuff-Boxes, at the Price of ucats each, of which he made a Present to the and Dutchess. The Baron de Wallemonde, Chamberlain of this Electorate, is returned from London.

id, July 26. O. S. The Infante Don Philip, Admiral of Spain, has sent an Order to the nts of Catalonia and Biscay, to give Notice Privateers of those two Provinces, that if a happen between the Crowns of Spain and Britain, they shall receive Passports and Com- from that Prince to cruise upon the British n the Mediterranean. A great Number of Coiners have lately been detected in this d in the neighbouring Villages and Provinces, m above 50 have been apprehended and com- to the Prisons of this City, and amongst them ht of St. Jago, and such a Quantity of Tools Species have been found upon them, as re- quired three Carts, drawn by six Mules each, to bring them all to Town.

The King has nominated the Duke de Bournonville, and the Marquis de Bedmar, Knights of the Order of St. Januarius, besides the others formerly mentioned. We are assured that the Queen Dowager of Spain, the Relict of Charles II. who resides at Bayonne, has, by her Will lately made, left all her Effects to the Queen, who we hear this Morning from St. Ildefonso, is very much afflicted with the Tooth-Ach.

The Marquis de la Quadra, in a late Conference with Mr. Keene, declared to him, that pursuant to the Orders sent by his Catholick Majesty to the West Indies, the Sequestration has been taken off of the five English Ships, of which his Majesty had ordered Restitution, and that probably they were sailed Home. 'Tis said the Marquis observed to Mr. Keene, that the Restitution of these Ships, was a fresh Proof of the King's Desire to be in Peace with the Crown of Great Britain; because his Majesty might, in strictness, have been justified in detaining those Ships which were so justly suspected of carrying on a contraband Trade. We are told, that in a Conference a little before this, the Marquis complain'd to Mr. Keene of the great Liberty taken by the English News Writers when they mentioned the Affairs of Spain; and that Mr. Keene made Answer, That the Freedom of Writing being greater in England than any other Country, no wonder that the Subjects made use of it at a time when they were so disgusted at the Losses they had suffer'd from the Spaniards.

Barcelona, July 28. O. S. 'Tis reckon'd, that if there should be a Rupture betwixt this Crown and that of Great Britain, the Privateers of Catalonia and Biscay, will be able to fit out above 20 Ships of Force to cruize in the Mediterranean.

Hall, Aug. 5. O. S. Two Days ago in the Afternoon, when the Weather was very serene, one of the most dreadful Storms that has been known in the Memory of Man, arose on a sudden in the Neighbourhood of Noordhausen, by which, in a few Minutes, the Air was so much darken'd as if it had been Night, and there fell Hail Stones so large, that some were taken up of the Size of Goose Eggs. The Gardens and Fruits of 20 or 30 of the neighbouring Villages were thereby utterly ruined.

By a List of the Imperial Officers killed and wounded in the Actions at Cornia and Meadia, it appears, that of the Infantry, 1 Colonel, 20 Captains, 2 Captain Lieutenants, 10 Lieutenants, and 2 Ensigns; and of the Cavalry, 1 Serjeant Major, 3 Captains, 2 Lieutenants, 2 Sub-Lieutenants, and a Cornet of Horse were killed: And that of the Infantry, 6 Captains, 8 Lieutenants, and 2 Ensigns; and of the Cavalry, 1 Serjeant General, 2 Colonels, 1 Lieutenant Colonel, 9 Captains, 13 Lieutenants, and 4 Cornets, were wounded.

Berlin, Aug. 8. O. S. The King has caused a new Collection to be made in his Dominions for the Protestants of Saltzbourg, to whom his Majesty has granted Establishments in the Kingdom of Prussia and Polish Lithuania. The last Collection amounts to a considerable Sum of Money, which is design'd for building Churches and Schools for the Use of those Protestants.

Franckfort, Aug. 8. O. S. They write from Newbourg, that an Edict is published there by the Elector Palatine, injoining the Protestants who are settled there, to turn away all their Servants of that Religion, and to hire none for the future but those of the Roman Catholick Religion. They write from Breslau, that the Jews who are established in that City, would be obliged to retire from thence forthwith, by virtue of an Edict from the Emperor, except a few Families which are excluded by Name.

Paris, Aug. 7. O. S. They write from Verdun in Lorain, that a Fire broke out there some Days ago in the Cathedral by the Negligence of some Plumbers, who being at work upon the Roof, and having forgot to carry away a Pan of burning Coals, the Fire caught the Timber Work in the Night time, and burnt with such Violence, that one of the Towers of that Church was entirely consumed, together with the Spire, and the Bells melted; and they add, that had it not been for the speedy Assistance of the Burghers and the Garison, the Church would have been reduced to Ashes; but they had Time to save the Sacred Vessels and Ornaments in the Chancel, &c.

On the Day of the Procession to Notre Dame Church, in Commemoration of the Vow made a Hundred Years ago by Lewis XIII. the Abbe Descors, Chaplain to the King of Poland, preach'd in the Church of the Christian Union. In the second Part of his Sermon, speaking of the Worship establish'd to the Honour of the Mother of God, on account of that Monarch's Vow, he concluded with the following Sublime Bombast.

'Is there a People or State in the World but re-
'veres Mary? Is there a City or Town in Christendom
'but has Monuments of her Power with the Lord?
'Princes and Monarchs lay their Crowns and Scep-
'ters at the Feet of this Virgin. Our King,
'Lewis XIII. of Glorious Memory, and his Succes-
'sor, the Hero of all Ages, Lewis the Great, have 'set up Trophies in this City of their Confidence in
'the Mediation of Mary. The King who commands
'us, and whom we love, makes the Vows of his
'Predecessors, his Law. He renews the Remem'brance thereof from the Sincerity of his Heart, by
'the Letter which he has now wrote to the Bishops
'of his Kingdom. What tender, what pious Senti-
'ments are there in this Order, for acknowledging the 'Mother of God to be the special Patroness both of
'his Person and his Dominions! We see this August
'Prince, as the Eldest Son of the Church, conse-
'crating the Hundredth Year, prescribing the great-
'est Solemnities for the Splendor of the Worship
'paid to Mary, inviting others by his Example to
'pay her the Homages of Fidelity and Gratitude,
'and perpetuating the Glory of her Assumption
'from Age to Age. May our Monarch, under
'Mary's Protection, enjoy the Fruits of his Piety:
'May he long be happy in a Spouse worthy of all
'the Crowns in the World: May he, like his Great
'Grand'ather, see his Great Grand Sons seated on 'different Thrones; and may he all his Life long
'taste the Sweets of that Peace which the modest
'Co-operation in the Works of his Reign has ma-
'naged to the Increase of his Provinces, notwith-
'standing the Horrors of a cruel War. This Mi'nister, Great God, is dear to the King, and Good
'to the People: May his Preservation for a whole
'Century be one of your Blessings on this flourishing
'Empire, &c.

Hague, Aug. 16. O. S. Two Days ago the Count de Gollowkin, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Czarina, imparted to the Government the News which he had received by an Express from Petersburg, of the Count de Munich's second Victory over the Turks near the Frontier of Poland.

LONDON.

On Thursday last was married at the Quakers Meeting at Bristol, in the Presence of a large Assembly, Mr. George Colsworthy of that City, (Son of Mr. John Colsworthy, an eminent and wealthy Merchant of Exeter) to Miss Sarah Summers, a beautiful young Lady, with 5000 l. Fortune.

On Monday Evening died, at her Son-in-Law's, Mr. Hankey's in Clapham, the Lady Barnard, Wife to the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, and Sister to Sir Robert Godschall.

We hear his Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Hon. Dudley Rider, Esq; his Attorney General, to be Master of the Rolls, in the room of Sir Joseph Jekyl, Knight, deceased.

The Commissioners of the Navy have appointed Edward Panton, Esq; to be Master of his Majesty's Ship the Tyger, commanded by Captain Griseth Dering.

And also to appoint George Cotterel, Esq; to be Master of his Majesty's Ship the Lenox, commanded by Capt. Covil Main.

To-morrow the Four following Highwaymen are to be executed at Kingston upon Thames, viz. William Cooper, Stephen Sutton, Richard Kilburn, and William Hoare.

Yesterday Morning between 8 and 9 o'Clock, Mr. Bond of Maidenhead coming to Town, was attacked and robbed by two Highwaymen between Hounslow and the Heath, of 47 Guineas and a Silver Watch.

Last Saturday one Webb, Servant to Mr. Hatt at Knightsbridge, was murder'd in Bell Lane at Brumpton by two Men on Horseback, for not driving two Asses out of their Way. On Sunday the Coroner's Jury sate on his Body, and brought in their Verdict Wilful Murder by Persons unknown.

The Lady of Sir George Champion, Knight, one of the present Sheriffs, lies dangerously ill at Sir George's Seat at Lee in Kent.

On Monday Night last a Debtor in Ludgate made his Escape out of that Place, by letting himself down from the Top on Ludgate Hill with a Sheet tore in Pieces, and got off undiscover'd.

Yesterday Morning about 10 o'Clock, a young Man fell from the new Building belonging to St. Bartholomew's Hospital, by which Accident he broke his Arm and Thigh, and very much bruised his Ribs; he was immediately carried to the said Hospital, where all possible Means are used for his Recovery.

Last Night the Right Hon. the Countess of Portland came to Town from the Duke of Kent's Seat at Wrest in Bedfordshire, to her House in Privy Garden, Whitehall.

Last Week died at Cambridge the Rev. Mr. Staniforth, Fellow of Christ College, a Gentleman of great Learning and Affability, as such he lived generally beloved, and died universally lamented. He was a distant Relation to the Bishop of Ely.

Yesterday the French, Portugueze, and some other Ambassadors, and their Ladies, went to the Earl of Tylnley's at Epping Forest, and dined there, where a sumptuous Entertainment was provided for them; after which they viewed the fine House and Gardens, and returned in the Evening.

On Monday last Francis Moore was committed to the Gatehouse, Westminster, by Valentine Hilder, Esq; for stealing a Quantity of Lead; and since he has impeached two of his Accomplices, in being concerned with him in divers Street Robberies; and they were Yesterday taken up and secured in St. Martin's Round-house, in order to be examined.

An Infallible CURE

For Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men,

By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS;

Which in a few Days render both Sexes Prolifick in a most wonderful Manner.

HUndreds of Ladies who were deem'd incurably Barren, and very many who thought themselves too old to bear Children, have immediately conceived after taking three or four Doses of them only; and vast Numbers of GENTLEMEN by taking them, have presently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either Imbecility or Age, imagin'd it impossible.

They almost instantly renovate the vital Ferment of the Blood and Juices, rectify the languid State of all the Fluids, rouze, fortify, and increase the Spirits, invigorate the Nerves, restore juvenile Warmth, and cause a sparkling Gladness and ardent Courage to flow in the Heart, and expand itself thro' the whole human System, so as sensibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Faculties, and corroborate or strengthen the whole Body, as well as the Part appropriated to Generation, and do infallibly cure Barrenness in one Sex, and Impotency in the other, from what Cause soever proceeding, as Thousands have experienced.

They are also pleasant to take, are Cordial to the Stomach, create an Appetite, and procure a good Digestion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard, in the Strand, Price 5 s. the Bottle, with Directions.

These are to Certify whom it may concern,

THAT the Two Medicines for External Use, which have been sold with [illegible] cess for the Good of Mankind near Thirty Years last past, for the Cure of

All Sorts of RUPTURES, BURSTEN, and BROKEN BELLIES.

are removed from the Minories where they have been sold by the Author, so long, and are now sold only at Mr. [illegible] Toyshop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of [illegible] Bury in the Poultry, at 5 s. the Parcel, sealed up with Directions given with them.

These two Remedies need no other Recommendation than themselves will manifest in two or three Days using, by their admirable and even astonishing Success, gained a Reputation they so justly deserve, both in City and Country, after wearing Trusses for many Years to no Purpose.

For by the Blessing of God, they make a perfect Cure either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and without Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient; one Parcel is generally sufficient for a compleat Cure, especially on a young Person.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured by them, which occasioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all such unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Trusses.

The World might have had many Certificates of the Cures of Persons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old to grown Persons of 60 Years or upwards; but the Gentry are naturally averse to let it be known, that they labour under such an Infirmity: Yet Mr. Sandwell can satisfy any Inquirer of the Validity of what is here said, tho' he has not had such large Knowledge, by reason of the short Time he has sold 'em, as they from whom the Medicines are, for good Reasons, removed.

No Letters received except Post paid.
